GOOD INVESTMENT

Three Speakers will talk about ways in which we can all make a difference to the poorest in the world by the way we shop and the way we invest our money.

Sarah Brazier will talk about Fairtrade and the impact we as consumers can have when we shop for food

Ruth Lindley will talk about how trade needs to be changed in particular in the clothing industry.

Andrew Robinson will speak about how we can do some good by choosing our carefully where we invest.

The conference is open to everybody. The conference is free and can be booked here.

We hope you can join us for what should be an interesting and informative day
